About Carlos Ararat

Carlos Ararat (30) is a professional and dynamic bassist recognized for his versatility and proficiency across the electric bass, double bass, and baby bass. Beyond his mastery as a performer, He is a composer, music director, arranger, producer, and live/session musician whose work bridges in Latin American, North American, and classical styles.

With a sound rooted in deep musicality and forward-looking artistic vision, Carlos has become a sought-after figure in both live performance and studio settings. Now based in Los Angeles, California, he continues expanding his presence in the U.S. Latin Music scene while collaborating with international artists, producers, and touring projects.

Carlos has shared the stage with some of the most respected names in Latin music, including:

Grammy award-winning artist Tony Succar, Andy Montañez, José Alberto “El Canarios”, Tony Vega, Maelo Ruiz, Luisito Carrión, Luigi Texidor, Manolo Lezcano, Pichie Pérez, Willy García, Jimmy Saa, Javier Vásquez, Amílcar Boscan, as well as former singers of Grupo Niche and Guayacán – two of the most emblematic salsa orchestras from Colombia.

In parallel, he leads his own project, Ararat Project Band, blending Colombian traditional music with jazz elements, while developing his solo career with the release of his debut album 'Conexiones'. Its first single, 'Fantasía en 6/8', is soon to be released.
